

Popular hymn to the blessed *Angelo Paoli

CHORUS:

Wherever poor are, God is there.

Who looks for God, will find Him among the poor.

Father of poor, Carmelite,
You always trust in Holy providence;
You always hold all poor your helping hand,
You always greet them all at your table.

You get your force from Holy Eucharist.
Clear and pure source of charity,
In all your prayers You find the way,
leading your pure heart to poverty.

Suffering people find solace in You
On your arrival you bring joy and happiness.
You bring salvation to souls and bodies,
You always bring a smile and serenity.

Nobles and rich give you a helping hand
to easily relieve ills and pains;
All your efforts never fall in vain
We're all with You for good and charity.

You heal dissensions, You do join all Hearts,
You are for good and keep away from shames:
You bring peace and push all pains away,
You everybody show the final prize.

Around You love springs up again
As a sign to change humanity:
who wants to find Jesus our Lord
needs to look for Him in poverty.

Angelo Paoli, Carmelite,
infuse us love for the Virgin Mary
to serve and offer support to our neighbour,
help us to enjoy the holy Eucharist.
